attorney departed this life, and his papers and effects passed into the hands of other persons from whom your Petitioner has in vain endeavored to procure them, and she verily believes that said persons either ignorant of their value or regardless of her interests and rights, have lost mislaid or destroyed said Vouchers, thereby compelling your Petitioner to make that manifest by other proof than the Vouchers themselves.

Very Respectfully &c.

Catherine S. Mills
Formerly, Catherine S. Van Eycke.
By her Agents & Attys.
D. P. and W. M. Truehearty

In the Matter of the Claim of Catherine S. Mills
Formerly
Catherine S. Van Eycke