State of Texas
County of Galveston " " "

Catherine S. Mills, Late
Catherine S. Ten Eycke.

vs

The State of Texas.

Interrogatories, to be propounded to Garrett J. Serhune of the City and State of New York in the matter relative to a claim against the State of Texas, in favor of Mrs. Catherine S. Mills, formerly Mrs. Catherine S. Ten Eycke, now of the State of Texas, County of Galveston, and late of the State of New York.

Int'y No. 1. State whether, or not, you are acquainted with Mrs. Catherine S. Mills, when and where you became so acquainted.

Do No. 2. State whether or not, you know anything of an advance, in the shape of money or supplies, or both, made by Cath. S. Mills, then Cath. S. Ten Eycke, towards fitting out an expedition of Volunteers to render assistance to Texas during her revolution.

Do. No. 3 State, particularly, as you can call to mind, the character or amt. of such supplies, or money, or both, furnished by said Cath. S. Mills and used by said expedition.

Do. No. 4 State, if you know, about what