The amount of Exchequers that James Morgan, one of the Navy Commissioners, received of Gail Borden, at Galveston, including the Seventy dollars Mr Borden paid to Mr Stephens Secretary to the Board, and which James Morgan receipt'd for to Mr Borden, was Seven hundred and Sixty dollars . . . . . $760:—

Out of which $760 Jas. Morgan pd. to Mr Stephens and took his Duplicate receipts therefor One hundred & thirty dollars } —130 —

Leaving for Jas. Morgan to account for in Exchequers six hundred & thirty dollars — which at 40 Cts the dollar is two hundred & fifty two dollars . . . . . $252:—

Out of said $252 said Jas. Morgan pd. his passage and that of Mr Bryan to New Orleans — 2 passages @ $25 } 50

and Hospital fees for both 2 at $1.50 . — 3

And Mr Bryans passage from New Orleans to Galveston when he returned for further instructions — 25

And for Stationary in New Orleans . . . . 2:37 } 80:37

Leaving a balance to be accounted for by Jas. Morgan, of one hundred & Seventy one dollars & 63/100ths — $171:63

Given under my hand this Sixth day, December 1843. — J Morgan.

Over