George C Neill vs State of Texas } Answers of Geo. McDonald to certain Interrogatories propounded to him by the in this cause, by virtue of a commission to the County Clerk of Harris County

To the 1st Direct Interrogatory he answers:

Harris County State of Texas

2d I was acquainted with Geo C Neill —

3d I resided in Jefferson County Texas when I first knew Geo C Neill & he resided in Harris. —

4th I was in the army with him.

5th He was a free white born American citizen. —

6th I do; Col Neill was the commanding officer of the detachment on an Indian Expedition around Comanche Peak, and Col Somerville was second in command, under whom said Geo C Neill served

7th To beat back the Indians & protect the frontier. —

8th By authority of the President of Texas; G.T.H. Bell, afterwards Governor, was the mustering officer of the occasion; the muster took place at Jenkinville on the Navasoto, some time in October or September 1839 —