Col. Edward Clark,
Commissioner of Claims,

Dear Sir: I take the liberty of writing to you for information in regard to the Bounty Land Warrant of George Pittuck, for 1280 acres. One Wm Bowen, now deceased, undertook to locate it for me. He entered it several times, but failed to take the necessary steps to obtain a patent. The last entry was made in McLe[redacted]an Co., Judge W. T. Cass, of our town, on a recent trip west, obtained information that it is now in your office. Be pleased to inform me, if it is on file in the Court of Claims, and if so, inform me as to its condition, and of the steps necessary to get possession of it, and also whether it will patent to assignee. I must confess my ignorance in land matters, and ask you for any information in the premises, you may think of service to me. The Warrant is that of my father who died in '97. I am the only heir
