State of Louisiana
City of New Orleans

Before me William Bryan, Consul for the Republic of Texas, for the Port of New Orleans, State of Louisiana, personnally appeared Joseph Urban a Citizen of the Republic of Texas (and known to me to be the same person;) and make the oath and saith that; the above schedule contains a true list of the effects destroyed by the burning of the town of San Felipe, and for cash, and sundries supplied to the army; amounting in all to the sum of Eight thousand six hundred and sixty two 60/100 Dollars; and this deponent further saith, that the property and effects described in the before mentioned schedule, were solely his own property, and further saith that; he is not directly or indirectly indebted to the government of the said Republic of Texas.

Sworn to this 1st Day of January 1840.

Joseph Urban

Before me
Wm Bryan
Consul.
