The State of Texas
County of Austin

This day personally appeared before me the undersigned Notary Public in and for said County Edwin U Caller Sr of said County and to me well known to be the identical person he represents himself to be and on oath says - That he was one of those who assisted in framing the plan and powers of the provisional government of Texas - on the 13th Novr 1835 and subscribed his name thereto. That he was in the convention that adopted the Constitution of the Republic of Texas on 17th March 1836 - He was an early emigrant to Texas from the United States having arrived in the early part of the year 1831 He participated largely in her early struggles for independence - He was among the few who had the means to furnish supplies provisions and stores for the little army and it is a matter well known and connected with the early history of Texas that he was liberal in his expenditures for the use of the army and for the benefit of the poor emigrants who about that time came to the Country: In the year 1832, he purchased two six pounder Cannon to be used against the
