Gonzales County } Personally appeared before the undersigned authority Adam Zumwalt of Gonzales to me well known who being duly sworn deposeth and saith that he was a resident citizen at Gonzales prior to and at the retreat from that place in March 1836 and that he lost by the Burning of the town by H. H. Kuines (as by his certificate referred to in the case of Jos. S. Martin) the buildings and goods referred to in the above account. That the value thereof is truly set down in Cash value and that he is not indebted to the Government either directly or indirectly and never has presented any claim for same articles. That the cattle referred to were lost by being
