The State of Texas }
Fayette County } Before me the undersigned personally came DeWitt C. Lyons, who being sworn according to law deposes that he was at the time or shortly after the invasion of Texas in the Spring of 1842 by the Mexicans under General Vasquez he joined the Company under the command of Capt Lewis le Grays as a private and that he served in said Service for about six weeks, and until the said Company was disbanded —

Affiant further states that he got no discharge for the service above named, and therefore he is unable to state the precise term of his service — said Company was then engaged in the protection of the frontier —
