Camp Coleto, August [illegible] 1836.

Daniel T. Dunham of the Volunteer Army of Texas having produced a certificate to the undersigned from Lieut. Col. Griffin Bayne, setting [illegible] entered the [illegible] corps under his command as a [illegible] on the [illegible] day of March [illegible] and served therein until the [illegible] day of April 1836 satisfactory to me and also a certificate signed Geo. W. Poe Capt. Artly setting forth that he entered the service of Texas on [illegible] April and served until the 1st July 1836; which is likewise satisfactory, I hereby certify that said D. C. [illegible] entered the Columbia Company commanded by Captain [illegible] on the 1st day of July 1836, and that he has served in said company from that time to the date above written (August 15th 1836) and having performed his duty faithfully and promptly whilst therein, has leave of absence until the 27th day of September 1836, and is hereby honourably discharged.

(T.)

$48.

[illegible] Pe[illegible] Benton Jr.
[illegible] Army "Col Comp."

Wm. J. Rush, [illegible] Warehouse
[illegible] Bergen Cty. Col. [illegible]