Camp Stroud
Falls of the Brazos
2nd March 1841.

This is to certify that Capt. L. B. Erath at the call for Volunteers to proceed against the Indians on the upper Brazos & the Government authorizing the services of the Tonkaway Indians, he promptly stepped forth and by using his accustomed energies, obtained the Indians — He having joined the expedition, commanded the Spy Company

Pay is due him from the 1st January 1841. up to the above date as Captain of Spies.

It is with pleasure I recommend him to the attention of the Government

He is fully calculated to render much service from his knowledge of the frontier

He is honorably discharged from the Expedition
