[illegible]

[illegible] the dissolution

the Army had fallen back went into quarters at Camp Johnston

[illegible] in Inventory No. 1. — While at this camp [illegible]

[illegible] supplies arrived in more abundance than they ever had before as Inventories 2 3 & 4 will show. After leaving [illegible] Johnstons and during the stay of the troops at [illegible] Independence the Bill of [illegible] rec.d is copied in [illegible] letter which I addressed Gen. Felix Huston then

[illegible] to which I would direct your Excellency's [illegible] as it may ~~perf~~ perhaps afford a clear to manner in which frauds have been practised on government. — From that date no additional supplies

[illegible] were [illegible] those which I selected [illegible]

[illegible] by Dr Goodrich but of this [illegible]

speak more in detail. —
