AUDITOR'S OFFICE,

Houston, 183

of Benj. Freeman [redacted]

This day came Wm. M. Logan one of the Admrs. and says the annexed instruments have undergone no alteration or Erasure in disposition ~~are just, true and original, and the only one that claimant has offered for liquidation: that he owes the government nothing on his own account or on account of any other person~~ & believes they are just true & original & claimant owes the government nothing to his knowledge or belief [redacted]

~~Sworn to before~~

also the said Logan says the figure 9 was made in place of 7. because two of the rifles were through mistake charge to the two Indi Viduals Harden & Farley

Sworn to before [redacted], Tauchin
