Know all men to whom these presents shall come

That I George W. Fulton of the county and Republic aforesaid, do hereby constitute and appoint, Henry Smith of said county my true and lawful attorney, for me and in my name to receive and receipt for all monies that may be due me by the Republic of Texas, in virtue of an act of Congress approved January 16th 1840, for services rendered by me as Collector of the District of Aransas during the years 1838 and 1839, and I hereby declare that the acts of the said Henry Smith, in the above matter are as binding upon me as if I had been personally present and done the same myself

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal this 24th day of October 1840
