State of Louisiana }
City of New Orleans }

Be it remembered that William Young Lewis Notary Public in and for the City of New Orleans duly Commissioned and sworn this day personally appeared Samuel Cunningham of this City.

Who declared that by an act passed before Joseph M. Marais of the said City, Notary Public dated the day of February eighteen hundred & forty, he is duly constituted the attorney in fact of C. S. Gillett of Nacogdoches in this State with certain powers therein mentioned.

Now therefore be it in pursuance of the powers of substitution therein & thereby given to him by this presents make nominate constitute & appoint Sam. M. Hitchcock of the City of Galveston in the Republic of Texas, to be his substitute & the true & lawful attorney of the said C. S. Gillett, hereby granting & subrogating to him all & singular the powers & authority to act in behalf of said Gillett that is delegated to him by the said act passed before the said Notary Marais dated as aforesaid & therein referred to, hereby bending his said principal to ratify and confirm all that his said substitute shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue of this act.

Done & passed at New Orleans this twelfth day of March eighteen hundred & forty one in presence of William J. Lewis & Edward M. Lewis both of this City witnesses who have hereunto signed their names with said party & notary.
