AUDITOR'S OFFICE.

Houston, July 17th 1837

This day came William Goodman and says the annexed instruments are just, true and original, and the only one that claimant has offered for liquidation: that he owes the government nothing on his own account, or on account of any other person.

Sworn to before

[illegible] Auditor.

TX

K351