Republic of Texas
Houston County

Personally appeared before me Elijah Gossett and being duly sworn deposeth & saith that he is not indebted to the aforesaid Republic on his own account or on account of any other person whatsoever (with the exception of one pair of Shoe and one Blanket Drawn while serving in the army and fees on land not yet due.) — and that he considers himself justly entitled to the amount due him for the services set forth in the annexed discharges — Sept 22d, 1837
