The Auditor being the responsible officer in accounts, it is clearly my opinion, that he has the right to judge of all legality, and properly appoints officers, and therefore has the right to inquire into the origin of a officer. The best evidence possible is the original appointment

Thos Clarke

2nd Jany 1838

Major Moody
Pst Auditor