An Act

For the relief of John Hogg.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Republic of Texas in Congress assembled, That the sum of three hundred and nineteen dollars and forty three cents be and the same is hereby appropriated for the payment of a note executed by John Hogg to the administrator of his son Henry, who was killed by the hostile indians on the seventh day of January A.D. 1841, and subsequently purchased of the Indians at the request of John Hogg, by a trading House in the Choctaw nation, and the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and required to issue a draft to the said John Hogg for the above amount, receivable for direct taxes.

(TX)

John M. Lewis
Speaker of the House of Representatives
N. D. Anderson
President of the Senate.

Approved January 29th 1845.
Anson Jones

Department of State
Feb. 12th 1845.

The undersigned hereby certifies the foregoing to be a true copy of the original Act on file in this Office.
In testimony whereof the official seal of the Department has been hereunto affixed.

B. C. Clark
Chief Clerk

4202-1