Texas, Jurisdiction of Austin

Before me Joseph Baker Judge of the Jurisdiction of Austin, on the 30th day of July 1836, personally appeared D. Davis G. Baker who being sworn states, that Capt Ja. Tallon of whom he purchased the above named horse has frequently assured him that in the United States the said horse was worth, and could have been sold for three hundred dollars. That he considers Capt Tallon a man of veracity whose word can be relied on. Further the deponent saith not.
