Texas, Jurisdiction of Austin —

On the 25th day of July 1836 Personally appeared before me Joseph Baker, Judge of the Jurisdiction of Austin, Charles Smith, who being sworn, states that on or about the fourth day of March last, he took for the service of Texas a large American Bay horse belonging to D. Davis & Baker — that he the said Smith belonged to Capt Horton's Company, and lost the said horse while acting as one of the rear guard in Col. Fannin's army on the day of the surrender — (TX) Charles Smith

Sworn and subscribed before me this 25th day of July 1836
