The President is of opinion that members are on the same footing as other officers of the Government, only entitled to the mileage which would be due to them, at a regular session, when, ~~when~~ the call session merges