AUDITOR'S OFFICE.

Houston, 30 March 1838.

This day came Adolphus Harndon Admr of Newton Harndon and says the annexed instruments just, true and original, and the only one that decd has offered for liquidation; that ~~he~~ decd owes the government nothing on his own account, or on account of any other person. So far as his come to his knowledge or belief

Sworn to before

[signature] Auditor.

TX

N76-2