AUDITOR'S OFFICE,

Houston, July 10th 1839

This day came A Anders and says the annexed instrument is just, true and original, and the only one that Claimant has offered for liquidation: that he owes the government nothing on his own account, or on account of any other person.

Sworn to before

Auditor.

P42-1