I hereby certify that J. L. Hill entered the volunteer Army of Texas on the 15th day July 1836 to serve a second tour of three months that he received a furlough on the 26th August of the same year, and whereas before the expiration of said furlough all the three and six months volunteers were furloughed and discharged and whereas the said Hill is entitled to his discharge for three months service on the same principles that the aforesaid volunteers were discharged, he is therefore by these presents honorably discharged from the Texian army 13th July 1837

J. L. Scott
Lieut
H. McLeland
Late Lieut Col Texas Army

TX

Pg 4 - 3