Personally came before me A. Brigham, Auditor, William W. Fishman and on oath says, that the annexed instrument is just, true, and original and that he is not indebted to government and the commissioner to have received a draft on the Treasury in his favor for thirty nine dollars 33 cents in full for the annexed instrument.

Columbia Oct. 25. 1836

(TX) W. W. Fishman

Sworn to and Signed before
A. Brigham Auditor

Q72-2