Auditors Office
Houston 7th June 1837

This day came the Hon. A. C. Horton and says the annexed instrument he believes to be just true & original that claimant owes nothing to the Government on his own account or on account of any other person neither has he retained any arms munitions of war or any other property whatever of the Govt

Sworn to before [signature] auditor

TX

G80-4