Personally came before me A. Brigham, Auditor, Edward Hughes, and says on oath, that the annexed instrument is just, true, and original, and that he is not indebted to the Government. Edward Hughes also acknowledges to have received a draft on the Treasurer in his favor for twenty Dollars in full, for the annexed instrument.

Columbia 23rd Nov. 1856

Attest John Beldin

Edward his Hughes
Mark

Sworn to and signed before A. Brigham
Auditor

(1.)

53-5