Genl. Memucan Hunt

Dear Sir

I have been called on by Capt Hetchcock of the Texan Service & also by the Gentleman (just now returned from Washington) who completed the agreement for the Arms with me, but whose name I have forgot, They both desired me to send You an account of the Number of Arms I had forwarded to New Orleans on the Contract, they are as follows viz

50 U S Carbines
12 Moulds for do
50 Cavalry Swords
50 M percuss.n Caps
100 U S Muskets with bayonets

Sent to my Son in Law, Louis S. Fourniquet, Merchant N. Orleans, to be delivered to Your order, I also placed in his hands, all the Notes of Yours, to be returned to You, after the payment of such as for the Goods delivered, including the Shipping expences incurred & the difference of Exchange between that City & this as payment was to have been made here — The Whole Amount with expences will fall under twenty five hundred dolls & becomes due the latter part of next month

with great Respect I am
Dear Sir Your obt Svt
Joseph Cofuz
