On the 21st of November, 1835, I exchanged a pyebald horse, (he being disabled for the journey) for a grey, with Mr. C. D. Jackson, and owe him upwards the sum of Twenty Dollars, said pyebald did belong to the First Company of Texan Volunteers from New Orleans; by order of the Captain.

To the Committee of Provision and safety at Washington

Wm. Hazeley
Quarter Master

(TX)

T28-4