1st Auditor's Office
Jany 5th 1841

Personally appeared before me Alonzo B Lewitzer late Lieutenant Col. of the 1st Regiment of Texas Volunteers in the Army of Texas and being duly sworn deposeth and saith that he received from James B. P. Jannings late of said Army a Clay Bank Horse valued at twenty five dollars ($25 00/100) which said horse was lost in the service by having been stolen by either the Mexicans or Indians while under my charge as an officer in the Army of San Antonio de Bexar and that he considers said Jannings justly entitled to a credit for the value of said horse
