Republic of Texas
County of Bexar } Know all men by these presents, That I, E. S. Campbell, for and in consideration of the sum of one hundred dollars to me in hand paid, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, have bargained, sold, and delivered unto James F. Johnson, his heirs and assigns, forever, all the pay and bounty in money and lands to which I am entitled as pay for services in the army of Texas, from the ninth day of April, 1837, to the first day of August, 1837, a certified certificate of which I herewith deliver to him the said James F. Johnson, to enable him to apply for and receive the same; and I hereby authorize and fully empower him the said James F. Johnson to select and locate the said land to which I am so entitled for my services in and from any part of the vacant lands of this republic, whenever he may by law be permitted to do so, and to sell [illegible] for the necessary title, or grants to the said lands, in his the said James F. Johnson's own name and for his own proper use and benefit, and to receive all the pay to which I am so entitled for said services and apply them to his own use and benefit.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 8th day of August, A.D. 1837.
