upon the return of this Case I am still of the opinion it is of the Military, I have to point. Because the Law which compensates the officers of the Civil List page 69. vol 1. does not include the Quarter ~~master~~ Gen. department hence there is no inference to be drawn. the words are clear & distinct however if the report of the Hon Secretary of the Treasury is correct and is Law without regarding the Statutes I would yield the point being of a contrary opinion I refer the matter to the determination of
