Richmond Sept. 24th 1841.

George W. Smith Esq.
Austin

Dear Sir!

Please pay to Judge Thomas Barnett One Hundred Dolls in the Promissory Notes. I have received your letter covering the dfts on the diff. Post Offices but have as yet not received the money therefor you will please pay the above amt. I think it rather dull chance of getting the money on the dfts

Jonathan Lewis

I Certify that from original signatures of Jonathan Lewis now on file in this Office, I am satisfied that the above and the one attached to the accompanying order dated Sep 23, 1841 are genuine and are drawn on account of services of J Lewis as mail contractor for 1841.
