Department of State

To C. G. Buckle, Admr. of the Estate of John Manson, dec'd.

Dr.

1844
June

To binding 86,400 pages of Laws and Journals of eighth Congress, at 16⅔ cents per 100 pages — (Excr.)

$144.00

The above Acct. for one hundred and forty-four dollars (Exchequer bills) is correct.

(TX) John Hall,
Chief Clerk.

Washington,
Sept. 11th. 1844.

Department of State
Washington, Sept. 11th. 1844.

The contract, in reference to the binding, specified in the above acct., was, nominally, with Messrs. Cruger & Moore, Public Printers for the 8th. Congress. Mr. John Manson, however, who executed the binding, with their consent and approbation, and who was employed in their service, was the beneficial party.

John Hall,
Chief Clerk.

65-12-1