9171

James McMahan

By a reference to the Check book you will see there. Was no draft Issued

The draft was filled in our office and as the Comptroller did not come in his office that evening — and James Hogget the alto for James McMahan was about to leave Houston would not wait and demanded the original paper he had left — which the first auditor gave him and destroyed the draft which had not been approved by the Comptroller

TX