if it is not the duty of that officer to furnish the copy as Clerk of the House without charge, it certainly must be considered a contingent expense of his office and paid accordingly

Sam H. Stan
Sec of Treas

Treasury Dept
July 15th 1841