from Washington Pennsylvania, that they were well armed equipped and provisioned and leaved by Capt Morgan, and that their transportation was paid by him, at Louisville they joined my battalion, and were with me until I arrived in Ky, they joined the Main Army at Camp Johnston, Capt. Morgans Muster Roll, will show the number of Men that, entered the regular service, the foregoing charge I would say, for the expences he was necessarily at, was very moderate -

A. S. Johnston
late Col. of Infantry