Inv 16690 5509

The Bearer Captain Andrew Neill 1st Regiment permanent Volunteers aged 25 Years 5 feet 11 inches high fair Complexion blue eyes black hair and by profession a Lawyer and enrolled at Velasco on the 25th day of August 1836 is hereby furloughed from his post and the Head Quarters of the Army of Texas until the President of the Republic shall issue his proclamation for all soldiers on furlough to join their respective Regiments Corps or Companies. Then should the said Captain Andrew Neill be without the limits of the Republic a period of Sixty days will be allowed him to respond to the Call and if within the limits of the Republic forthwith to comply with the proclamation in failure whereof he will be stricken from the Rolls of the Army. No excuse except the Certificate of a Surgeon for Sickness will be received for the Violation of this furlough.

Given at Camp Bonnie the Hd. Qrs. of the Army this 1st day of June A.D. 1837.

TX

Approved
William Fisher
Secretary of War

John Grayson Major
Commanding 1st Regt
Permanent Volunteers
Texas Army

535-12