	Brought forward		35.84½
Republic of Texas vs Alejandro Vidal for Treason	Docketing 25	25
	Ent Indictment	50
	Sp. 5 Witnesses	1.50
	Swearing 5 Wit.	.62½
	filing paper	.12½
	Mile foreign	.75
	Taxing costs	.75
	Final decree	.62½	5.12½
			$40.97

Jno W. Smith Dep. Clerk
District Court

I have examined the above & foregoing account of John W. Smith deputy clerk of the District Court of Bexar County amounting to forty dollars & ninety seven cents. & find the same correctly stated, just & allowing, the Auditor of public accounts will pay, audit & allow the same Oct. 28. 1839

James W. Robinson
District Judge

Republic of Texas
County of Bexar } Personally appeared before me Erasmo Seguin Chief Justice & Ex Officio Notary Public in and for said County of Bexar John W. Smith Dep. Clerk of the District Court Bexar County who being sworn in due and solemn form sayeth that the foregoing account is just true and original, that he does not owe the Republic either on his own account or that of any other person and that it is the only account presented for liquidation.

Jno W. Smith

Sworn and subscribed to before me this twenth day of November A.D. 1839.

Erasmo Seguin
Chief Justice