Republic of Texas }
Bexar County }

I have Examined the foregoing account of John W. Smith deputy clerk of the district Court of said County, when the Republic is liable for the cost and find the same correctly stated, just & correct. the Auditor, will audit & allow the same, & the treasurer will pay it out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated
Oct. 28th 1839.

James H. Robinson
District Judge

Republic of Texas }
County of Bexar } Personally appeared before me Cramo Seguin Chief Justice & Ex Officio Notary Public in and for said County of Bexar John W. Smith Dep. Clerk District Court Bexar County who being sworn in due and solemn form sayeth that the foregoing account is just true and original, that he does not owe the Goverment either on his own account or that of any other person and that it is the only account presented for liquidation

Jno. W. Smith

Sworn and Subscribed to before me this seventh day of November A.D. 1839.

Cramo Seguin
Chief Justice

1st	Account	Allowed	1st May 1839	$155.25
2nd	Do.	"	28th October "	10.97
3rd	Do.	"	" " "	185.07½
				$351.29½