Know all men by these presents that I John Kellogg late of the State of New York U.S.A. now a citizen of Matagorda in the Republic of Texas do make constitute and appoint Thomas J. Jones also a citizen of said Town of Matagorda my true and lawful Attorney in fact for me and in my name specially to apply to the Government of the said Republic of Texas in order to obtain all and singular the rights and privileges which by right of settlement Bounty for service in the Army as a Volunteer or otherwise I may be entitled to or may be deemed to have by law or decree from the Government aforesaid for which purpose I do hereby constitute and empower him said Thomas J. Jones as also to collect my pay and all other emoluments for services as a Volunteer in the Army of Texas and to do all other things in the premises as fully as I myself might or could do were I personally present at the doing of the same ratifying all that my said attorney may do in these premises Signed and acknowledged at the Town of Bellaire this 18th day of October 1836

John Kellogg

Witness
William
Thos Stewart

(IX)

N76-1