Houston May 21st 1837—

This is to certify that Some time in June or July last I took in to the public Service a brown Mule belonging to Capt William Scott and also left a roan poney that belonged to the public with him Said mule was not recested for by me until the present time the poney is Still in the possision of Capt Scott the mule was of more value then the poney in my opinion at least Twenty dollars—

$20.
