Dear Sir:

I have sent Sargent Clifton, for a Barrel, of the Whiskey in your charge for the use of our hospital. It matters not to whom it belongs it must come, we have sick dying for the want of stimulus. Sargent Clifton, has orders to bring it — and will receipt to you for it upon this order.

Augt. 27th 1836.

Very Respectfully your Obt. Servt.
By order. Mrs. P. Green
Brig Genl. Texas Army

TX

W6-24