AUDITOR'S OFFICE,

HOUSTON, 8th January 1839.

THIS DAY came James A. Silvester for claimant and says the annexed Instrument is just, true, and original, and the only one claimant has offered for liquidation: that he owes the Government nothing on his own account, or on account of any other person, to the best of his knowledge & belief.

Sworn to before

2nd AUDITOR.

29-19-2