Republic of Texas

To Angelina D Smith Dr

For Amt actually expended in recovering transporting (& Clothing her Son Fayette Smith) from Independence Missouri to Washington Texas — $300.00

Cr by Cash rec'd by Me 11 Mch 1843 from the Treasury Exct'y $250.00

by Amt paid R T Kane for transportation of Myself & Son from Houston to Washington Exct'y $20.00 $270.00

Ballance due $30.00

Washington July 11 1845

Personally appeared Angelina D Smith and being duly sworn deposeth and saieth. That the above account is just & true and that the ~~above~~ amount of three hundred dollars was actually expended as therein specified, and that she considers the ballance of thirty dollars justly due & owing to her.

Before Me this 11th day of July 1845 [illegible]

[illegible]

212-15-2