It does seem to me that if claimant cannot receive his land for want of validity in his discharge, he ought not to receive pay. It should be countersigned by a field officer, unless there was none present, and that made to appear. Sam Houston